

Pam O'Leary
Dorchester, MA

Pamela is a Lead Account Manager for National Grid and has worked in the utility industry for 33 years. Pamela is responsible for scheduling and delivery on construction installations, infrastructure relocations, and related work required to provide safe, affordable, clean and reliable energy to larger commercial/ industrial customers within the Boston territory. Her project experience includes Fenway MGM Music Hall, Seaport Life Science Buildings, and Boston Housing Authority. Prior to National Grid, Pamela was a third grade teacher in Boston. Pamela has been involved with Girl Scouts of Eastern Massachusetts' annual golf tournament and Camp Cedar Hill service days. Her other volunteer work includes Boston Food Pantry, Day Dream Camp, Faith Formation teacher, and Boston Children's Hospital. Pamela received her Bachelor of Management and teaching degree from Regis College.