

Trevor Frankel Boston, MA

Trevor is a Research Analyst and Sleeve Manager at Boston Partners Global Investors, where he conducts fundamental analysis on international healthcare equities. Prior to joining Boston Partners in 2015, Trevor did fundamental equity research on a variety of industries for Highfields Capital, and he started his career doing quantitative equity research for MDT Advisers (now a subsidiary of Federated Investors). He is a CFA® charterholder. He has served as a Non-Resident Tutor in Economics for Pforzheimer House at Harvard College and has regularly guest lectured on emerging markets investing for a graduate investment class at MIT Sloan. Trevor holds an MBA from the MIT Sloan School of Management and graduated from Harvard College with an AB (magna cum laude) in economics with a secondary field in mathematical sciences. Trevor joined the Board of Directors in 2020.