The Eleventh House Vintage is hosting a slow fashion day March 11 to support secondhand clothing. Head over to 58 Pulaski St. in Peabody to take part in a clothing swap, make some embroidery, buy vintage accessories, and more. Everyone is encouraged to bring five to 10 pieces of clothing, shoes, or accessories in wearable condition. The swap will run from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. General admission is free. For more information, go to eventbrite.com.

Test your golfing skills in a mini golf event at the Belmont Public Library March 10 from 6 to 9 p.m. Adults aged 21 and over can team up and play 18 different holes spread across the library. Tickets cost $15 and include a scorecard, two beer tickets, and free light snacks. Tickets can be purchased at the door or online at eventbrite.com.

Attend Salem's Full Moon Ritual when the last full moon of winter makes its debut the eve of March 6. The ritual will begin at 6 p.m. at the Maison Vampyre house, located at 1 Derby Square. This month's moon, called the Worm Moon, "is the perfect time to reflect on what the darker months have shown us, and what we are taking away from this quiet time of solitude," organizers from the Masion Vampyre wrote. Tickets are $20 for non-members of Dark Mirror, Maison Vampyre's magic and meditation studio. Read more event details at eventbrite.com.
