Girl Scouts of Eastern Mass. elects Michael Bookman to its board

Jun 21, 2023 Updated Jun 21, 2023

Girl Scouts of Eastern Massachusetts \(GSEMA\), the largest girl-serving organization in Massachusetts and 10th largest Girl Scout council in the United States, elected Michael Bookman of Boston to serve on its Board of Directors during the council's Annual Meeting, which was hosted on May 11. Voting members of the council elected this year's slate, which includes three new adult board members, four new girl board members, and three new Board Nominating and Development Committee members.

Bookman serves as the Chief Legal Officer of Immuneering Corporation (Nasdaq:IMRX), a clinical-stage oncology company. Prior to joining Immuneering, Michael served as General Counsel and Secretary of Frequency Therapeutics (Nasdaq: FREQ). As a member of the Executive Leadership Team, he established and led Frequency's Legal Department as its first in-house attorney.

Prior to his time at Frequency, Michael was an associate at Latham & Watkins LLP, a leading international law firm where he worked on corporate transactional, securities and general business and governance matters, with an emphasis on representing high-growth technology and life sciences companies. Bookman holds a Doctor of Jurisprudence from the University of Virginia School of Law and a Bachelor of Business Administration, summa cum laude, from the University of Miami.

“Our Board of Directors are so vital to helping advance the Girl Scouts mission,” said Barbara Fortier, Chief Executive Officer, Girl Scouts of Eastern Massachusetts. “Our organization is fully dedicated to providing all girls, no matter their circumstances, unmatched opportunities to be their best selves, champion causes, embrace the outdoors, and gain perspectives from peers outside their social circles. We are pleased to welcome our newly elected board members, whose talents and commitment will help make strides for every current and future Girl Scout.

Girl Scouts of Eastern Massachusetts is 31,500 strong, with 20,000 girls and 11,500 volunteers in 178 communities in eastern Massachusetts, building girl scouts of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place.
