

Andrea Aiello - Andrea is the Associate Dean for Academic and Student Services in the School of Management at Clark University. She serves on numerous School of Management and University committees and is a member and supporter of the United Way Women's Initiative. Andrea completed her second 2-year term on the GSCWM Board Development Committee and served on the GSCWM Board of Directors from 2010-2013, serving on the Finance Committee and as First Vice President. She joins the Board of Directors again as an at-large member. She was invited to participate in the White House Council on Women and Girls, with the White House Council of Economic Advisors under the Obama administration with deans from numerous AACSB accredited universities, administration officials, and business stakeholders to seek ways to expand opportunities for women in business. She has been involved in volunteer work promoting leadership for young women and working in higher education for over 30 years. She holds an M.B.A. and undergraduate degree in Public Administration and teaches organizational leadership part-time. Andrea resides in Sutton with her family.

Building girls of
courage, confidence,
and character who
make the world a better place.

