Cybersecurity Basics 1
Common Passwords

123456	abc123	freedom	whatever
password	football	passw0rd	qazwsx
123456789	123123	shadow	trustno1
12345678	monkey	baseball	654321
12345	654321	buster	jordan23
111111	!@#$%^&*	daniel	harley
1234567	charlie	hannah	password1
sunshine	aa123456	thomas	1234
qwerty	donald	summer	robert iloveyou	password1	letmein	matthew princess	qwerty123	starwars
admin	zxcvbnm	dragon
welcome	121212	master
666666	bailey	hello

5 Tips to Strengthen Your Passwords:

- Make sure that your passwords are long (more than 9 characters!)
- Include a mix of uppercase letters, lowercase letters, numbers, and symbols in your passwords.
- Don't reuse passwords! Use a unique password for each account.
- Change your passwords immediately if you think you may have been hacked.
- Never share your password with anyone else!

Splash Data. (2018, December). The Worst Passwords of 2018 - Top 50.
Retrieved from https://www.teamsid.com/100-worst-passwords-top-50/