The Design Thinking Process

As part of the design thinking process, makers:

Define the Need

They name the problem to solve.

They think of ideas.

Design

They choose one idea and make a plan.

They build their idea.

Redesign

They make changes to make it even better.

They try out what they've made and find ways to fix and make it even better.

Share Solutions

They show their creations to others.