

Here's a breakdown. Add and delete according to your needs and your project.

PEOPLE RESOURCES

Cooperation, Communication, and Contacts

- People already involved in your issue whom you can work with
- People who care about the issue and want to help
- People with skills, such as PR or outreach, who can help you develop your skills
- Phone numbers of local media to publicize the issue

"STUFF" RESOURCES

Supplies and More

- Phones
- Notebooks and pens
- E-mail and Internet access
- Art materials for posters and publicity

"REALITY" CHECK

(as in, But There're Only, Um, 5 of Us!)

- Amount of girl power on your team
- Time you have to spend on your project
- Access to resources
- Access to the place where the issue is located
- Transportation (keep it safe!)