

A World of Girls

PHOTOCOPY AND CUT ALONG DASHED LINES.

“SAYING HOW IT FEELS” SCENARIOS

Jamila is tired of jumping rope and wants to do something else in the park.

In the bookmobile, Campbell doesn't want to say that she has trouble reading, too.

Alejandra doesn't want to taste a fig, but she's afraid to say so to Shali's mother.

Campbell becomes sad when she hears about typhoons and hurricanes.

Alejandra would rather read about queens in the bookmobile than play the monkey game, but she doesn't want to seem unfriendly.

Jamila wants to stop fishing and go back to the bookmobile, but she doesn't want to hurt Lakti's feelings.

