

Brainstorming Tips: Think, Pair, Share

Think, Pair, Share is a great way to make sure all girls have a chance to be heard when making troop decisions.

HOW TO RUN A THINK, PAIR, SHARE ACTIVITY:

Lead girls through the basic steps by telling them they will:

Break into small groups.

Listen to the question or prompt.

Think about their answers.

- Girls may want to write their answers down.
- Twenty seconds should be enough time, since girls will need to sit quietly.

Pair with other girls.

- Girls talk with one to three other girls (depending on group size), making sure everyone has a chance to share their answers. If there's time, it's OK for girls to ask questions about each other's answers.
- For pairs, 20 seconds should be enough time. If your troop enjoys discussion, consider extending this to 1 to 2 minutes.

Share with the group.

- Girls share their answers with the larger group.
- This can be completed in 20–30 seconds, but will run longer based on group size and how the group sharing is done.

There are two ways to set up group sharing:

Strongly recommended: One girl shares the best/most interesting/summary answer for the group. This approach is great if you're running short on time. It also helps develop conflict resolution and compromise skills.

Optional: Each girl shares her partner's answer. This helps girls develop active listening skills, but will run longer because all girls are sharing.
