I can't wait

Have you ever felt so excited that you just can't wait? The feeling you get when you're looking forward to something with friends or when you're thinking about new and fun things that could happen? We love that feeling!

At Girl Scouts – North Carolina Coastal Pines, girls have new experiences that give them that super-excited, jumping, giggling, butterflies-in-the-stomach feeling. Experiences that inspire them to look forward to what they're going to do today, tomorrow, and even years from now!

WHAT AN exciting time TO BE A GIRL SCOUT

When a girl says, "I can't wait to," you know that what's coming next is something she is excited about. Whether she's talking about tomorrow's field trip or the big game next Saturday, that wide-eyed anticipation is one of the best parts of childhood.

So how can we play a part in inspiring that feeling? What role can we play? At Girl Scouts – North Carolina Coastal Pines, our goal is to instill confidence, leadership skills, and a collaborative spirit in girls. But the key to instilling those qualities and teaching them life lessons is being able to impart fun, imagination, and joy into everything we do.

As I look back on the past year, I see the fun, I see the imagination and I feel the joy in what we've done together. This past year, we moved into a new service center in Fayetteville that includes program and retail space. We had a successful Cookie Sale, met our fund development goals and positioned the council to continue to be financially strong for the future. We also completed the Strategic Learning process and identified areas which will not only enhance the Girl Scout experience for our girls but make us stronger. In the coming year, we will kick off and pilot several initiatives that came out of Strategic Learning and which we believe will make a difference for our girls and volunteers in all 41 of our counties.

What an exciting time to be a Girl Scout!

Building girls of courage, confidence,
and character,
who make the world

WITH YOU SHE WILL

Girl Scouts is designed to give every girl a chance to succeed, build friendships, challenge herself and have fun. We are guided by the Girl Scout Promise and Girl Scout Law and are passionate about building girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place.

At Girl Scouts – North Carolina Coastal Pines, we want every girl to feel so excited about her future that she can hardly wait for it, because she knows she can achieve anything she sets her mind to. And that feeling can start in one day, in one meeting, or by one role model that shows her she can accomplish more than she ever imagined.

Whether as a community partner, supporter or volunteer, you can help introduce girls to new experiences that make every day feel like the best day ever. We want our girls to have every opportunity to try everything they've ever dreamed. But at every turn, we need cheerleaders, guides, and mentors, helping them develop skills and confidence that will last a lifetime.

Imagine the smiles, the excitement, and the memories you can help make. Those are the moments that a girl shares at Girl Scouts. Moments when she grows in self-confidence; when she discovers that her voice counts. Moments when she supports others; when she discovers her values, connects with others to work as a team, and takes action to make the world a better place.

With Girl Scouts, she will learn that anything is possible. Thank you for making a difference!

...DISCOVER

Girl Scouting helps girls become leaders in their daily lives and in the world. Our national leadership curriculum helps girls experience the three keys to leadership – Discovering Self, Connecting with Others, and Taking Action.

Girls understand themselves and their values and use their knowledge and skills to explore the world. Girls develop a strong sense of self and positive values. Girls develop critical thinking, gain practical life skills and seek challenges in the world.

Girls are provided opportunities to go to new places, meet new friends, and engage in quality programming to help explore various fields and career paths. Girl Scouting expands girls' horizons and helps them imagine all kinds of new possibilities for their futures.

During 2012-2013, our council served 28,835 girls in troops and groups throughout our council region. With the support of 9,748 adult volunteers, girls were encouraged to learn, guided in their development as leaders, and inspired to continue growing through Girl Scouts.

Girl programming focuses on topics that enhance the Girl Scout Leadership Experience including Journeys, healthy living, STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math), financial literacy, self-esteem, environmental stewardship, leadership and citizenship.

...CONNECT

Girl Scouts has a rich history of inclusion and has been committed to making the organization accessible to all girls since its start. By removing barriers through community outreach and providing financial assistance to meet girls' needs, 11,555 girls were able to experience the benefits of Girl Scouting who could not otherwise participate.

Girls were served in after-school programs, at public housing facilities, and through partnerships with other agencies including local Boys & Girls Clubs, community centers and schools.

With the support of Golden Corral Corporation, 60 girls from low income communities had the opportunity to have a traditional troop experience. Some of their experiences throughout the year included spending a week at Camp Graham, completing the be a friend first program, participating in Teen Camporee, and challenging themselves at a rock climbing event.

Through a continued partnership with the National Inclusion Project, our council launched the Inclusion Challenge in honor of Different Shoe Day and World Thinking Day in February. Through their work on the Circle of Friends Patch Program, over 400 girls and adults took the challenge to live a day in someone else's shoes.

...TAKE ACTION

The Girl Scout Gold Award represents the highest and most prestigious achievement in Girl Scouting and provides the opportunity for girls to take action and create a lasting change in their communities. Each year, girls Go Gold by demonstrating extraordinary leadership through remarkable Take Action projects which have a sustainable impact in their communities and beyond.

Girls act to make the world a better place. Girls can identify community needs and are resourceful problem solvers. Girls advocate for themselves and others, locally and globally. Girls educate and inspire others to act and feel empowered to make a difference in the world.

During 2012-2013, 60 Girl Scout Seniors and Ambassadors earned the Girl Scout Gold Award, 275 Girl Scout Cadettes earned the Girl Scout Silver Award, and 759 Girl Scout Juniors earned the Girl Scout Bronze Award.

In partnership with the Kappa Delta Sorority chapter at North Carolina State University, 217 girls and 113 adults and volunteers joined together to learn more about Girl Scouting's highest awards at the All That Glitters event. Dr. Jennifer Latino, director of the First Year Experience at Campbell University, shared her Girl Scout experience and how earning leadership awards helps girls achieve in education, in the workplace and throughout their lifetime.

Awarded to fewer than six percent of Girl Scouts annually, each Gold Awardee spends over 80 hours on her project. Congratulations to all of Girl Scouts – North Carolina Coastal Pines' Girl Scout award recipients for achieving their goals and this distinguished honor—all while serving their communities.

...REACH MY GOAL

When a girl sells cookies, she is building a lifetime of skills and confidence. The Girl Scout Cookie Program builds 5 essential life skills: goal setting, decision making, money management, people skills and business ethics. The Girl Scout Cookie Program is the largest girl-led business in the world, generating nearly $800 million in annual sales. And these aren't just cookies – they're opportunities. With their Girl Scout Cookie Program earnings, girls fund important community projects at the local level.

All proceeds from the cookie sale remain in the council and are used to benefit girls – both directly in troop treasuries and indirectly by subsidizing the cost of providing Girl Scouting throughout our 41 counties.

For the ninth year, Girl Scouts – North Carolina Coastal Pines' Cookie Program supported military troops with cookies through its Operation Cookie Drop campaign. To date, customer donations have purchased more than 600,000 boxes of cookies for military personnel.

For the second year, thanks to a partnership with Sage Mobile Payment, many customers were able to purchase cookies by credit card at booth locations. During the 2013 sale, troops that used the credit card swipers on average increased their troop proceeds by more than 35%.

Our super sellers enjoyed a Top Seller's Luncheon with the CEO at the North Carolina Museum of Natural Sciences in downtown Raleigh. In addition to celebrating their success and receiving trophies, the girls and their families had the opportunity to spend the afternoon exploring the museum.

...EXPLORE

Studies show that girls are more successful in cooperative, hands-on math and science programs, and greatly benefit from all-girl science experiences. By exposing girls to STEM and connecting them with female role models, Girl Scouts – North Carolina Coastal Pines is helping to inspire and motivate the next generation of STEM professionals.

Partnering with women professionals from local companies like Cisco Systems, GlaxoSmithKline, IBM, RTI International, and Time Warner Cable, the 7th annual TechnoQuest event brought teen girls onto the campus of Meredith College. 136 girls explored a wide variety of topics including genetics, forensics, engineering, robotics, computer science and chemistry.

The UNC–Wilmington Center for Marine Science hosted MarineQuest where 142 girls and 61 adults explored the marine habitats of coastal Wilmington. Girls and adults participated in four events with a variety of activities, hands-on learning and marine adventures. Girls even had the opportunity to collect salt water samples from coastal fishing areas and examine the samples in a real-life lab.

The Gadget Girls, our all-girls FIRST Robotics team, competed in the 2013 NC Regional competition and placed 35th overall – what an exciting finish for a rookie team! They were tasked with designing and building a robot that could gather and launch Frisbees into a variety of goals. Funding through Girl Scouts of the USA and United Technologies helped support this exciting new STEM opportunity.

With support from Time Warner Cable, two Precious GEMS events – Girls Engaged in Math/Science – were made possible for 88 Girl Scout Juniors and Cadettes. Girls discovered new live television technologies on the campus of UNC – Wilmington and participated in workshops facilitated by the NC BioNetwork and Lockheed Martin at Methodist University in Fayetteville.

...INSPIRE OTHERS

Girl Scouts is girl-driven, reflecting the ever-changing needs and interests of participating girls. Our program encourages increased skill-building and responsibility, all while promoting the development of strong leadership and decision-making skills. All activities are grade-appropriate and based on the Girl Scout Leadership Experience as well as the Girl Scout Promise and Law.

The it² Girl Advisory Team – Inspire Today, Inspire Tomorrow – provides girls in all areas of our council an opportunity to share their voice. This year, the 2012-2013 team which is supported by adult volunteers, provided valuable insights from the girl perspective on council programming, trainings, publications and membership communications.

This year the Council launched Girl Scout's anti-bullying series program, bff – be a friend first. This series, which is designed to complement the aMaze Journey, provides girls with valuable skills and tools for mastering the world of relationships. Coupled with the anti-bullying movement, this program aims to help girls develop skills for healthy relationships during adolescence and into adulthood.

Our life skills programs continue to be successful with girls. Girls participated in American Red Cross Babysitting classes to learn skills that allow them to go out and help in their communities. In addition, girls participated in the First Aid and CPR Workshops for Girls where they learned how to respond to common first aid emergencies as well as cardiac and breathing emergencies.

Troop leaders and volunteers are inspiring girls every day in Girl Scouting. Volunteers from four service unit areas and the Centennial Jubilee event committee were bestowed with our annual CEO Award at the 2013 Annual Meeting. In addition, community partners – Vollmer Farms in Franklin County, Louisburg College, and Our Savior Lutheran Church in Moore County – were honored for their contributions to the council.

...LEAD

Girls are joining forces to change the world. Girl Scouts are leading the way in improving the quality of life in their local and global communities through citizenship, stewardship and the power of advocacy.

Furthermore, Girl Scout–North Carolina Coastal Pines offers specific programming where girls can explore and learn more about advocacy and the power of a voice.

Girls care about, inspire, and team with others locally and globally. Girls develop healthy relationships, promote cooperation and teambuilding and can resolve conflicts. Girls advance diversity in a multicultural world and feel connected to their communities, locally and globally.

In conjunction with our sister councils statewide, Girl Scouts from our council served with the North Carolina Governor's Page Program during Girl Scout Week in March. Girls had the opportunity to meet high ranking government officials, visit area landmarks and share their experiences with their local representatives.

The 5th annual UNC Women in Law event at UNC– Chapel Hill allowed girls and adult volunteers to participate in mock trials, enhance their public speaking skills, and explore self-confidence. Girl Scout Juniors, Cadettes, Seniors and Ambassadors worked on developing a trial for a Title IX case in addition to learning about the law school experience from female students.

Through a continued partnership with the United Way of the Greater Triangle's Women's Leadership Council, our council hosted the Discover the Leader in You! Leadership Camp in August at Camp Mary Atkinson. With support from mentors, middle school-aged girls explored their personal values, leadership, conflict resolution tools, communication, and leadership action. Girls had the opportunity to hear from beekeeping experts with the Bayer Cropsience Facility, learn from leadership students and staff from Meredith College, and help build a community garden at the Johnston County Boys and Girls Club.

...GO ADVENTURING

Encouraging healthy lifestyles is in the fabric of our program opportunities and Girl Scouts—North Carolina Coastal Pines works to create innovative and engaging programs, events and camp sessions that get girls—and adults—up and moving. Camping, hiking, swimming and all things outdoors show girls of all ages that leading an active lifestyle will create lasting benefits to overall physical, mental and emotional health.

The 2013 S'more Adventure summer season served nearly 2,000 campers, representing 36 of our 41 counties, at a session of resident camp or adventure trips.

Girl Scouts also participated in 16 volunteer-led Day Camps experiencing the outdoors and exploring program topics including science, music, farm life, survival skills and inventions.

With support from Cisco Systems, the council hosted a unique Summer Science Camp where Girl Scout Cadettes attended hands-on workshops on the campus of Meredith College. Girls got a taste of campus life by staying in resident halls, eating in the dining hall and going to classes.

Our exciting Adventure Trip Program served Girl Scout Cadettes, Seniors and Ambassadors. Campers learned to surf the waves at Kure Beach, hiked the Appalachian mountains in West Virginia, explored the Outer Banks by kayak down the Alligator River, and tackled their fears riding roller coasters at Busch Gardens.

...MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Donors lead Girl Scouting forward in many ways. Giving expresses a donor's personal belief in the value of Girl Scouting. Giving encourages greater engagement and inspires others to contribute. When we lead by giving, others follow. Girl Scouts – North Carolina Coastal Pines is grateful for the generous financial support we receive from individuals, corporations and foundations. Contributions make an immediate difference in the lives of girls, with $0.86 of every dollar contributed going directly to programming for girls. Thank you for helping girls realize their leadership potential and become girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place.
