

How to Participate

Choose a theme and design a cookie booth that shows off your Girl Scout glitz and glam. Your booth should be original, creative and showcase your troop's marketing genius. A good time to bling your booth is National Girl Scout Cookie Weekend (March 3–5). To enter into the contest, complete the online entry form between Feb. 17 and March 7, 2023 at gswcf.org/blingyourbooth.

The following information is needed to complete your entry:

- ◆ A picture of your blinged-out booth
- ◆ Date and location of the booth
- ◆ Leader's name and address
- ◆ Your booth's theme
- ◆ Five digit troop number

Once you submit your entry, we will upload the picture of your booth to the Bling Your Booth album on the GSWCF Facebook page on March 9. The three booths with the most likes will be the winners, so be sure to share the album with your family and friends! All troops who submit a photo will receive a marketing patch for each girl in their troop. One entry per troop.

Winners will be announced March 17, 2023 on GSWCF Facebook and at gswcf.org/cookies.

First Place winner winner will receive a cookie sign, tablecloth, apron, special patch for participating girls in addition to the bling your booth patch and a $75 GSWCF gift certificate.

Second Place winner winner will receive a cookie sign, tablecloth, apron, special patch for participating girls in addition to the bling your booth patch and a $50 GSWCF gift certificate.

Third Place winner winner will receive a cookie sign, tablecloth, apron, special patch for participating girls in addition to the bling your booth patch and a $25 GSWCF gift certificate.

GSWCF reserves the right to substitute rewards based on availability.
